

Jeff Reinstein began participating in the Bureau's programs as a 7th grade camper and continued participating all through High School, graduating in 2004. He has had over 8 years of experience in working with the children and teens including the Bureau's Weekend and Sunday staff as well as giving his time to the youth groups of the Orange County Jewish Community.

As a driven and esteemed young man attending Cal State University Fullerton, Jeff came to work for the Bureau full time, July 1st, 2008. His enthusiasm, creativity and hard work in his position continues to give back to the participants of the program.
