An Extraordinary Marriage: The Jews and America

What can be said of the teeming masses of Jewish immigrants who landed on the doorsteps of America?

They kvetched and they kvelled and they turned a haven into a homeland!

Discover Jewish immigrants who brought us everything from the Maidenform bra, roller derby, award-winning plays and novels, the polio vaccine and even "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas." Learn about the contributions of artists, philanthropists, scientists, inventors, activists and builders of justice and social change.

Dr. Jerry Binder is an educator who has a passion for researching, writing and teaching about the Jewish role in American life. His interdisciplinary education includes a Ph.D. in Psychology and a B.A. in American Cultural Studies. He is on the faculty of the Whizin Center at the American Jewish University, and one of the most popular teachers at UCI's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. He also teaches for UCI Extension and the Emeritus Institute at Saddleback College.
