CODE OF CONDUCT & DRESS CODE FOR ALL BUREAU YOUTH PROGRAMS

In order to ensure the safety and well-being of all our students, the staff of the Bureau will enforce the following policies:

- Any student who is deemed to be a danger to him/herself, to others or to the program will not be permitted to participate in Bureau activities.
- Possession of any illegal or unlawful items will result in immediate dismissal from the program. These items include: cigarettes, alcohol, drugs, and weapons.
- On weekend camp retreats, students will also be dismissed from the program for entering a cabin of the opposite sex at any time. Students may also be dismissed for leaving their cabins after "lights out" or for indecent exposure.
- The Bureau reserves the right to inspect any property brought to a Bureau activity, including but not limited to purses, luggage, backpacks, shopping bags and clothing (whether it is being worn at the time or not) at any time, with or without prior notice.
- If a disciplinary action has been taken against a student in school, camp or the community, the student's parent is required to schedule a consultation with the director in order for the student to enroll or to continue (if it occurs mid-year) in a Bureau program. Failure to do so will result in dismissal from the program.
- If a student has a mental health concern or diagnosis with a medical or psychological problem that could result in his/her being a danger to him/herself, others or the Program, the director must approve his/her participation and may require certain conditions (i.e. doctor's note, on-going therapy, etc.). We ask that this be disclosed out of the interest of assuring your child's safety and the safety of the community because we take this very seriously.
- If the Bureau learns of an undisclosed disciplinary action or problem diagnosis, the student will immediately be dismissed from all Bureau programs. Immediate dismissal means that a parent will be called to pick up the student immediately, regardless of the time of day or the location of the program.

Dress code:

Our community upholds respect and honor for each individual. In order to maintain this standard, please do not plan to wear any item of clothing that is strapless, has spaghetti straps or reveals your midriff or undergarments. In an effort to uphold the Bureau values, no garment should display graphics of drugs, alcohol, profanity or violent acts. If a program participant chooses to wear a skirt, it must come at least to the knees. While at camp, the Shabbat dress code states: "In order to make Shabbat different from the rest of the week, we will all dress in nice clothes for Friday night services. While you do not want to wear your High Holiday best, please remember that, t-shirts, and shorts are not appropriate for Erev Shabbat."
